

The Baby & The Burning

11/10/10

This week we are going to be taking a look at chapter 18 and 19 in Genesis. We are going to be looking at them simultaneously. These two chapters have some similarities as well as some major contrasts. In chapter 18 we will see God's promise fulfilled, and in chapter 19 we will see His punishment fulfilled. As you study, notice what leads to both the promise and the punishment.

Thursday

How do you respond to new people who enter your life? Do you take time to get to know them, or do you ignore them and just concentrate on the friends you already have?

What if God paid you a visit? Would you be ready for that? How would you recognize Him?

What are various ways in which God may visit us, or shows Himself to us?

Do you think God sometimes shows Himself to us, and we don't recognize it's Him? Why or why not?

Fri day

Let's take a look at how Abraham and Lot responded to their visitors.
First, read Genesis 18:1-2. Who visits Abraham?

Where did these men come from? Who are they? (Look at Genesis 18:1)

How does Abraham respond when he looks up and sees the three men standing nearby?

Now let's look at chapter 19:1. Who visits Lot?

Look at Genesis 18:22, who were these men?

Now look back at Genesis 19:1 and tell how Lot responds to his visitors.

Are you expecting God to visit you in your life? Why or why not?

Saturday

From reading the scriptures, we know that these men were angels from God, and it appears the Lord Himself was with them when visiting Abraham, but did Abraham and Lot know that? What do you think and why?

Let's look at how they responded after the first initial greeting. Read Genesis 18:3-5. How does Abraham welcome these strangers?

Now does Abraham just feed them bread and water? No way, look at how he cares for them. Read verses 6,7,& 8. Explain how he serves his guests.

Now let's look at Lot and how he responded to the strangers. Read Genesis 19:2-3, what does Lot do for the two men?

Lot also took special care of the two strangers. What about you? How do you react when someone new comes to your school, or to Youth Group?

Sunday

Now as we look at these two chapters you'll notice there are two different situations happening here. Read Genesis 18:9-10 and explain why the angels appeared to Abraham.

Take a look back at Genesis 15:3-5. What did God promise Abraham here?

So, this isn't the first time God has promised to provide a child for Abraham and Sarah, but quite a bit of time has passed since the promise in chapter 15 till now. Do you think Abraham and Sarah doubted God?

Do you ever doubt God will do what He says? Why or why not?

Look at Genesis 18:12, how does Sarah react to the news told to Abraham by the Lord?

How does God respond to her? Read Genesis 18:13-14.

It's hard to have faith, especially when we have to wait. We want God to answer our prayers and see to our wants and needs right away, and when He doesn't we begin to doubt He can or will. Do you ever feel like this? Why?

Monday

Let's look now at why the angels came to visit Lot. Read Genesis 19:13, and write down why they visited Lot.

Look back at chapter 18, verses 20–25, what does Abraham ask God?

How does the Lord respond to Abraham in verse 26?

Abraham and God go back and forth in verses 27–33. At the end of the conversation how many righteous people did God need to find in order to not destroy the city?

Let's look at the state of Sodom and Gomorrah's wickedness. Read Genesis 19:4–5 and write down what the people of the city wanted to do to the visitors.

Can you imagine? Lot refuses and even does what to try and keep the men away from the visitors. Read Genesis 19:8.

How do the angels keep the men from attacking Lot's house? (Genesis 19:11)

Tuesday

Read Genesis 19:26 and write down what happens to Lot's wife.

Why did she look back?

Do you ever find yourself looking back towards various sins or circumstances in your life? Why?

Do you ever cling to things of this world hoping they'll bring you happiness instead of relying on God's promises? Why?

God did fulfill His promise to Abraham and Sarah. They eventually had their child, a little baby boy named Isaac! A name meaning LAUGHTER!!

How are you living your life? Are you living expecting God to work and move in your life and others? Why or why not? If not what will it take for God to get your attention?

Memory Verse:
Psalm 121:1-4
